If classes reach their maximum, a wait list will be taken and you will be notified when the next scheduled training will take place.

Important note: In order to accommodate the availability of instructors, facilities and materials for this training event, we are scheduling just one training time at one location this spring. It will be held at the Far West Agribusiness facility located at 5805 W Thorpe Road, Spokane, Washington. Those beyond driving distance are encouraged to make flight reservations at least 2 weeks in advance in order to receive the most favorable rates. For a list of participating hotels close to the airport and the Far West facility, click on the "Accommodations" tab on the registration page. Included in your registration will be a catered lunch and break refreshments.
