Announcement

To: All FWAA Members and Associates
From: James F. Fitzgerald, Executive Director
Subject : Final Chance to be included in the 2016 FWAA Directory
Date: April 5, 2016

Within the next few days, current members of the Far West Agribusiness Association will be included in the 2016 directory as it goes to print and then distribution. If you have not paid your dues and wish to be included in the directory, please notify the Association ASAP by phoning 509-465-5055 or email admin@fwaa.org

If you wish to advertise in this year's directory and have not yet made arrangement's, you should also contact the FWAA office immediately.

Please keep in mind that the directory will be sent to over 750 industry members and associates and will be listed upon the Far West website. A courtesy copy will be sent to all those listed in the directory with additional copies available for purchase by contacting the FWAA office. Don't miss being listed in this widely used and reliable source of contact information within the industry. If your company's membership dues have not been paid, unfortunately you will not be included in the 2016 FWAA membership directory. Act now and you will not miss the opportunity!

Thank you in advance for your participation and please look for your directory within the next few weeks.
