Announcement

To: All FWAA Members and Associates
From: James F. Fitzgerald, Executive Director
Subject: 2016 Asmark Regulatory Posters Available
Date: April 18, 2016

FWAA is pleased to continue partnering with the Asmark Institute (Asmark) in offering all of our dues-paying members a complimentary set of the latest 2016 regulatory posters. The posters should be arriving anytime in the next few days. They are updated annually and contain valuable information on:

- Worker Protection Standard
- D.O.T. Shipping Information
- Restricted-Use Products

Additional posters are available for purchase for $12.00 per set plus shipping. We believe you will find the posters useful and informative. If you would like to order an additional set, please contact the FWAA office by calling (509) 465-5055 or send an email to admin@fwaa.org.

Asmark is the leading resource center for agricultural retailers in the United States. Working exclusively through FWAA in our region, Asmark acts as a resource center for compliance materials and services, develops common sense solutions to new Federal regulatory requirements, monitors enforcement activity for uniformity, provides advocacy, and supports industry efforts to ward off adverse regulation. To learn more about the program, or receive a presentation, contact the FWAA office at the number and email address provided above.
