Announcement

To: All FWAA Members and Associates

From: James F. Fitzgerald, Executive Director

Subject : Asmark Regulatory Posters

Date: June 9, 2016

A blue ink handwritten signature, likely of James F. Fitzgerald, is written over the "From:" line.

In follow-up to the April 18th announcement, we still have a few of the Asmark Institute Regulatory Poster sets for sale. You may recall that each paid member received a complimentary set paid for by the association. If you desire additional sets for $12.00 plus shipping please contact the FWAA office by emailing admin@fwaa.org or call 509-465-5055.

These posters provide valuable information related to:

- Worker Protection Standard
- DOT Shipping Information
- Restricted-Use Products

Asmark is a leading resource center for agricultural retailers in the United States. They offer common sense solutions to the Federal Regulatory requirements. To learn more about the program or receive a presentation, contact the FWAA office at the number and email address provided above.
