Announcement

To: All FWAA Members and Associates
From: James F. Fitzgerald, Executive Director
Subject: ResponsibleAg Auditor Training Scholarships Available Through Asmark
Date: July 1, 2016

In a news release last month, the Asmark Institute announced its plan to provide a limited number of scholarships to qualified individuals interested in becoming a credentialed auditor under the ResponsibleAg Certification Program. As noted in the release, each scholarship will offset the $2,150 registration for training and includes the credentialing application process.
