

2018 Washington State Legislative Session Weekly Report Far West Agribusiness Association February 2, 2018

Week of January 29 to February 2 Highlights

Today is the first major cutoff date for the 2018 session of the Washington State Legislature. February 2 is the house of origin policy committee cutoff. Bills need to be passed out of their policy committees on or before this day in order to stay alive for consideration. Exceptions to this deadline include bills in fiscal committees and bills necessary to implement the budget.

Immediately following is the February 6 house of origin fiscal committee cutoff date. This means bills in the fiscal committees, i.e., House Finance, House Appropriations, House and Senate Transportation and Senate Ways & Means, need to pass out by February 6 in order to stay alive.

But note that any bill deemed NTIB (necessary to implement the budget) can be exempt from these cut off deadlines. And while unlikely, even dead bills can be brought back to life through either extraordinary procedural maneuvers or creative amendments on other bills moving through the process.

Below is a summary of the highlights from this week and events for next week.

Business & Labor

Fair Chance Act

The Fair Chance Act (2SHB 1298) would prohibit employers from asking about a job applicant's prior criminal background until the employer has established the applicant is otherwise qualified for the position. Exemptions, such as for law enforcement and work with children, are included. It is waiting to be brought to the House floor for a vote.

Business & Occupation Tax

HB 2947 provides manufacturers located in rural counties with "relief from the business and occupation tax." The bill was introduced on January 29 and has been referred to the House Finance Committee.

Affirmative Action

The Senate State Government, Tribal Relations & Elections Committee voted out SB 6406. The bill would repeal language from the voter-approved Initiative 200 that banned affirmative action in Washington State. As explained in this MyNorthwest.com article, the purpose of the legislation is to help promote diversity in Washington State universities and state agencies. The bill is waiting to be called to the Senate floor for a vote.

Sexual Harassment Prevention

SB 5996 is designed to reduce sexual harassment and sexual assault in the workplace. It was voted out of the Senate Labor & Commerce Committee on January 31. It is waiting to be called to the Senate floor for a vote.

Health Care

Women's Health Care

The Senate passed SSB 6219 on January 31 with a 26-22 (1 excused) vote. The legislation requires that health plans include coverage for contraceptives with no cost sharing. It also establishes an abortion coverage requirement for health plans that provide maternity care coverage. It has been referred to the House Health Care & Wellness Committee. Also on January 31, the Senate passed SB 5912 (44-4, 1 excused) and ESSB 5084 (48-0, 1 excused), related to improved mammography and breast health. SB 5912 has also been referred to the House Health Care & Wellness Committee.

Opioid Epidemic

HB 2489 was introduced to prevent opioid use disorder. It has an executive session scheduled for February 2 in the House Health Care & Wellness Committee. Its companion bill, SSB 6150, was passed out of the Senate Health & Long Term Care Committee on January 30 and referred to Ways & Means the following day.

Washington's Health Exchange Access

The House Health Care & Wellness Committee has a February 2 executive session on HB 2408. This legislation requires a health carrier offering a health plan approved by the School Employees Board to offer a qualified health plan in counties where no qualified health plans are offered on the Health Benefit Exchange. It also reduces premiums for enrollees in the Washington Health Insurance Pool in counties where there is no other individual market coverage available. Its companion, SB 6564, is in the Senate Health & Long Term Care Committee.

Capital Gains Tax

Legislation, HB 2967, sponsored by Rep. Lytton (D-Anacortes) implementing a capital gains tax to provide "property tax relief" was introduced on January 30 and is in the House Finance Committee.

Cyber

Net Neutrality

With the intent of protecting net neutrality in Washington State, SHB 2282 was referred to and passed out of the House Technology & Economic Development Committee. Among other things, this bill would prohibit both the blocking and the throttling of lawful content by internet service providers. It has been referred to House Appropriations Committee with a public hearing scheduled for February 3.

Consumer Privacy

The House Committee on Technology & Economic Development voted out ESHB 2200 on January 30. This bill prohibits internet service providers from using customers' private information to market to them without their consent. It is also in the House Appropriations Committee with a public hearing scheduled for February 3.

Law & Justice

Legal Financial Obligations (LFO)

Having been voted out of the House, E2SHB 1783 has a public hearing on February 7 in the Senate Law & Justice Committee. The intent of the LFO bill is to prioritize victim restitution and give judges the ability to reduce or waive other fees and fines if a defendant is found to be indigent at the time of sentencing.

Body Cameras

SB 6408, regarding body cameras and the Public Records Act, had a public hearing in the Senate Law & Justice Committee on January 29 and was passed out of the committee on February 1. As explained in this Yakima Herald article, among other things the legislation would make permanent current rules surrounding the release of body camera footage.

Environment

Buy Clean Washington Act

The Buy Clean Washington Act (HB 2412) is scheduled for executive action on both February 2 and 5 in the House Capital Budget Committee. The legislation requires that the state Department of Enterprise services implement several policies, including requiring a maximum acceptable global warming potential for eligible materials used in construction projects funded by the capital budget.

Reducing Emissions Via Car Standards

HB 2328 is designed to reduce emissions by making changes to clean car standards. The clean car program was voted out of the House Environment Committee on February 1 with a 5-4 vote. Specifically, the bill adopts California motor vehicle standards for zero-emission vehicles and medium sized trucks.

Oil Terminal Permit Denied

On January 29, Democrat Governor Jay Inslee announced his plans to reject a permit for the Vancouver Energy oil-by-rail terminal, as reported in this Seattle Times article.

Agriculture

Rep. Chandler (R-Granger) announced his top priority issue this session. His plan is to ensure a safe food supply by providing adequate people and funding at the Department of Agriculture, as noted in this Washington Agriculture Network blog.
