Subject: Farmers for Free Trade - May 3, 2018 at FWAA Building

Date: April 30, 2018

Far West Agribusiness Association has made available to the Farmers for Free Trade, www.farmersforfreetrade.com, our facility on Thursday, May 3rd, 2018 from 10:30 AM - 12:00 PM. The location address is 5805 W. Thorpe Road, Spokane, WA 99224.

This Agribusiness Roundtable will discuss the importance of trade and the impact of export tariffs on Washington State Agriculture.

Special guest Congresswoman Cathy McMorris Rodgers will attend.

The event is without cost but you are asked to RSVP to jen@farmersforfreetrade.com

Farmers for Free Trade is a bipartisan 501(c)(4) nonprofit supported by leading agriculture organizations and businesses including the American Farm Bureau Federation, National Pork Producers Council, National Corn Growers Association, National Association of Wheat Growers, National Beef, and many others.

Far West members, partners, and associates are encouraged to attend and participate. The economic viability of our farmers is vital to the success of all who work within the Agricultural Industry.
