

Serving the Northwest for over 50 years.

Announcement

To: All FWAA Members & Northwest Certified Crop Advisers (NWCCA's)
From: James F. Fitzgerald, Executive Director
Subject: Northwest Certified Crop Adviser of the Year Award
Date: June 29, 2018

Nominations may now be made for the 2018 Northwest Certified Crop Adviser of the Year Award. Please click here to find a letter from the NWCCA Board Chairman, Galen Mooso, about the competition, a criteria sheet and a nomination form.

Deadline for applications is Close of Business Friday - September 28th, 2018.

The winner of the 2018 NWCCA of the Year will receive $250.00 cash, hotel lodging and complementary registration for two at the FWAA Winter Conference in Kennewick, Washington, a personal plaque, the honor of having his or her name on the traveling trophy, and the ability to display the trophy for one year at his or her place of business. The NWCCA of the Year will be the Northwest's nominee for the 2018 North American Certified Crop Adviser of the Year.

Please consider nominating your best Certified Crop Adviser today.

If you have any questions, please contact the FWAA office at 509-465-5055.